THE ONLY UNIQUE TELECOM EVENT FOR TURKEY, CASPIAN, CENTRAL ASIA AND RUSSIA

Caspian Telecoms – an ideal platform for the companies interested in promotion and development of the business in the Caspian region, CIS countries and Central Asia. This event annually attracts the attention of leading world players of the industry, as well as representatives of the government, heads of the communications ministries and departments, professional associations and press.

Caspian Telecoms – this the unique possibility in one place to present your company to the greatest number of experts in the field of fixed, mobile, satellite communication and in area of information technologies from the CIS countries, the Caspian region, Turkey and the Central Asia.

VIP DELEGATIONS INCLUDE:

Turkey, Russia, Kazakhstan, Azerbaijan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Georgia, Tajikistan, Armenia, Ukraine, Belarus, Moldova, Mongolia, Romania, Greece, Afghanistan, Bulgaria, Iran and Kyrgyzstan.

The high-level delegates on conference annually are directed by telecommunication departments of the CIS countries and the adjacent states, the international organizations and the companies, the state and private operators of communication, the investment companies and banks.

The success of the conference is largely due to the presence of senior-level participants from CIS countries who have the authority to make decisions. The conference is a platform for commercial and state telecommunications organisations to discuss, in detail, current issues in the telecommunications industry - including the licensing of telecommunications organisations, privatisation and legal and financial problems. Caspian Telecoms creates an effective business environment for establishing new contacts, holding talks and strengthening important ties.
